My Grandma's House

Hi, I'm Tom. I'm ten years old. Every summer, I visit my grandma and grandpa in a small town near the sea.

Their house is big and old. There are four bedrooms, a big kitchen and two bathrooms. There isn't a garage, so Grandpa's car is in the street. My favorite room is the living room. There's a big sofa, and under the sofa there's always a sleeping cat. Her name is Lulu.

In the garden, there's a very tall tree. My cousin Ana and I play under the tree every afternoon. Ana is nine. She has two rabbits and a fish, but she doesn't have a dog.

The town is small, but there are a lot of fun places. There's a park, a swimming pool and three cafés. There isn't a movie theater, but there's a library with great books.

On Sundays, Grandma cooks soup for the whole family. My uncle and aunt come too. I love summer at my grandma's house!
